

The Nativity of our Lord: Christmas Eve

A Christmas Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols

5:00 p.m.

Welcome to St. Paul's. May you know God's presence in this holy place.

Kindly turn cell phones and pagers off or put in vibrate mode.

For parents who would like child care, the Nursery is located off the hallway leading to the Lilly Room.

This beautiful service was instituted by Archbishop Edward Benson at Truro Cathedral in England. It is based on a medieval vigil liturgy. The service has become well known throughout the world as many parishes, chapels, and cathedrals sing their own service of Lessons and Carols. To mark the Christmas Season, lessons are read by laity and clergy, with carols and hymns sung by the choir and congregation. The scriptures and hymns all combine to express the fulfillment of God's promise in the good news of great joy for all people, which is the birth of Jesus, who is the Messiah, the Lord.

A Bidding Prayer

Dear People of God: In this Christmas Season, let it be our duty and delight to hear once more the message of the Angels, to go to Bethlehem and see the Son of God lying in a manger.

Let us hear and heed in Holy Scripture the story of God's loving purpose from the time of our rebellion against him until the glorious redemption brought to us by his holy Child Jesus, and let us make this place glad with our carols of praise.

But first, let us pray for the needs of his whole world, for peace and justice on earth, for the unity and mission of the Church for which he died, and especially for his Church in our country and in this city.

And because he particularly loves them, let us remember in his name the poor and helpless, the cold, the hungry and the oppressed, the sick and those who mourn, the lonely and unloved, the aged and little children, as well as all those who do not know and love the Lord Jesus Christ.

Finally, let us remember before God his pure and lowly Mother, and that whole multitude which no one can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in Jesus, we are one for evermore.

And now, to sum up all these petitions, let us pray in the words which Christ himself has taught us, saying:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy name;
 thy kingdom come; thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation;
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Almighty God bless us with his grace; Christ give us the joys of everlasting life; and to the fellowship of the citizens above, may the King of Angels bring us all. Amen.

The people remain standing and sing the hymn with the choir.

Hymn 91, Break forth, O beauteous heavenly light

Ermuntre, dich

Break forth, O beau - teous heaven - ly light, and ush - er in the morn - ing; O shep - herds, greet that glo - rious sight, our Lord a crib a - dorn - ing. This child, this lit - tle help - less boy, shall be our con - fi - dence and joy, the power of Sa - tan break - ing, our peace e - ter - nal mak - ing.

The people are seated for lessons and anthems and stand for hymns.
The people's response following each lesson is, "Thanks be to God."

The Invitatory Anthem Ding dong! merrily on high

16th French Tune
Arranged by David Willcocks

Ding dong! merrily on high
In heav'n the bells are ringing:
Ding, dong! verily the sky
Is riv'n with angel singing.
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis.

E'en so here below, below,
Let steeple bells be swungen,
And i-o, i-o, i-o
By priest and people sungen.
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis.

Pray ye dutifully prime
Your matin chime, ye ringers;
May ye beautifully rime
Your evetime song, ye singers.
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis.

Adam lay ybounden,
Bounden in a bond:
Four thousand winter
Thought he not too long.
And all was for an apple
An apple that he took,
As clerkes finden
Written in their book.

Ne had the apple taken been,
The apple taken been,
Ne had never our lady
A been heavené queen.
Blessed be the time

Anthem      The Lord at first did Adam make

English traditional carol
Arranged by Stephen Cleobury

The Lord at first did Adam make
Out of the dust and clay,
And in his nostrils breathed life,
E'en as the scriptures say.
And then in Eden's paradise
He placed him to dwell,
that he within it should remain,
To dress and keep it well Refrain

Now for the blessings we enjoy,
Which are from heav'n above,
Let us renounce all wickedness,
And live in perfect love:
Then shall we do Christ's own command,
E'en his own written word:
And when we die, in heaven shall
Enjoy our living Lord: Refrain

Refrain

Now let good Christians wake from sleep,
Let darkness turn to day,
And sinners find in mutual love
The straight and glorious way.

Now mark the goodness of the Lord
Which he to mankind bore:
His mercy soon he did extend,
Lost man for to restore:
And then, for to redeem our souls
From death and hellish thrall,
He said his own dear Son should be
The Saviour of us all: Refrain

And now the tide is nigh at hand,
In which our Saviour came;
Let us rejoice and merry be
In keeping of the same
Let's feed the poor and hungry souls,
And such as do it crave;
Then when we die, in heaven we
Our sure reward shall have. Refrain

Anthem In dulci jubilo

Old German Tune

In dulci jubilo
 Let us our homage shew;
 Our heart's joy reclineth
in praesepio
 And like a bright star shineth
Matris in gremio. Alpha es et O!
O Patris caritas,
O Nati lenitas!
 Deeply were we stained
Per nostra crimina;
 But thou hast for us gained
Coelorum gaudia.
 O that we were there!

O Jesu parvule!
 I yearn for thee alway!
 Hear me, I beseech thee,
O puer optime!
 My prayer let it reach thee,
O Princeps gloriae! Trahe me post te!
Ubi sunt gaudia,
 Where, if that they be not there?
 There are angels singing
Nova cantica
 There the bells are ringing
In Regis curia:
 O that we were there!

Anthem Gabriel's Message

Basque carol
arranged by Paul Nicholson

The angel Gabriel from heaven came,
his wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame;
"All hail," said he, "thou lowly maiden Mary,
most highly favored lady," Gloria!
Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head,
"To me be as it pleaseth God," she said,
"my soul shall laud and magnify his holy Name."
Most highly favored lady, Gloria!

"For known a blessed Mother thou shalt be,
all generations laud and honor thee;
thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold,
most highly favored lady, "Gloria!"
Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ was born in Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn,
and Christian folk throughout the world will ever say:
"Most highly favored lady, " Gloria!

Peter Wishart

Alleluya, a new work is come on hand
Through might and grace of Gode's son
To save the lost of ev'ry land. Alleluya.
For now is free that erst was bound;
We may well sing Alleluya.

Now is fulfilled the prophecy
Of David and of Jeremy
And also of Isaiah;
Sing we therefore both loud and high:
Alleluya.

Alleluya, this sweete' song
Out of a green branch it sprung.
God send us the life that lasteth long!
Now joy and bliss be him among
That thus can sing. Alleluya. 15th Century

Anthem In the bleak mid-winter

Joel Martinson

In the bleak mid-winter, frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow. Snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter, long ago.
Our God, Heav'n cannot hold Him, nor earth sustain
Heav'n and earth shall flee away when He comes to reign.
In the bleak mid-winter, a stable place sufficed.
The Lord God Almighty, Jesus Christ.

Enough for Him whom cherubim, worship night and day,
A breast full of milk, and a manger full of hay;
Enough for him whom angels fall down before,
The ox, and ass and camel which adore.
Angels and Archangels may have gathered there,
Cherubim & Seraphim throng'd the air.
But only His mother in her maiden bliss
Worshipped the Beloved, with a kiss.

What can I give Him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
If I were a wise man, I would do my part.
Yet what I can I give Him, give my heart.

Offertory Anthem O holy night!

Adolphe Adam
arranged by John Rutter

O holy night! The stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of the dear Savior's birth.
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
Till He appear'd and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.
Fall on your knees! Oh hear the angel voices!
O night divine! O night when Christ was born.

Led by the light of faith serenely beaming,
With glowing hearts By His cradle we stand;
So, led by light of a star sweetly gleaming,
Here came the wise men from Orient land.
The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger,
In all our trials born to be our friend.
He knows our need, to our weakness is no stranger;
Behold your King! Before Him lowly bend!

Truly He taught us to love one another;
His law is love and His gospel is peace.
Chains shall He break, for the slave is our brother,
And in His name All oppression shall cease.
Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we,
Let all within us praise His holy name.
Christ is the Lord, then ever, ever praise we,
His pow'r and glory evermore proclaim.

As the offering is brought forward, the people stand and sing
